COMMENTS ON STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Sir:

This application was allowed on August 20, 2010. The Notice of Allowability included a Statement of Reasons for Allowance.

While applicant appreciates the allowance of this application, applicant notes that the statement of reasons for allowance discusses the limitations of each of applicant's independent claims, with respect to certain cited references, as the reason for allowance of that claim and all of its dependent claims. Applicant states for the record that:

First, applicant does not necessarily agree with the Examiner that the referenced limitations of applicant's independent claims are the only reasons that the allowed claims are patentable; and

Second, to the extent, if any, that the Examiner has cited a limitation of one claim with respect to another claim, then to the extent that the actual limitations of any claim differ from the limitation as cited and/or paraphrased by the Examiner, each claim is limited only by its actual language (including the language of any claim from which it depends), and limitations are not to be read into any claim.

Respectfully submitted,

/Jeffrey H. Ingerman/
